How To Get The Most Out Of Your Single Question Reading

Include a brief introduction of yourself, about a paragraph or so is all that is needed, just enough to give a brief description of yourself: name, age, sex, family situation, address, present occupation and what you would like from your communication with Awareness.

You are asking From 1 Up To A Maximum Of 4 Important Questions. When formulating your questions, be clear about what it is you are asking to about. Ask what you really want to know the Truth about, and hold within yourself the intention and openness to receive that Truth.

Your Question(s) can be about a current event in your life, about past lives, about an immediate health issue, about the dynamics within a relationship. You may be looking for clarification about your spiritual path. Or you can request advice on a practice or exercise specific to your needs at this particular time.

It is suggested that you charge your question(s) with the frequency of love and gratitude, and that you envision truths being brought forward from your Single Question Reading that will serve to uplift your soul and all of humanity as well.

If you already know some information related to the Your Question(s), include it, so that Awareness doesn't have to spend energy to discover what you already know or could have supplied in a few simple words. For example, if you know you have a certain health problem, tell what you know.

Only ask the Question(s) that are really important to YOU. Be sure the answer to your Question(s) are not readily available elsewhere, that you have exhausted every other source such as common sense, Google or self-reflection.

Please be advised that any Health Related Questions are understood to be for research purposes only and any course of action in areas of medical treatments are to be determined by appropriate health professionals.

We try to get your reading back to you within 18 business days, but sometimes situations occur, we are swamped with more than we can easily handle and delays can occur. If it looks as though your reading will be delayed, we will notify you as soon as we can.

Letter To the CAC Membership

Dear CAC Membership:

I feel compelled to share with you how powerful your personal readings are; you see, when I call Cosmic Awareness, and our angels (yours and mine), together something amazing happens. It is likely this happens for all Interpreters, but for me it is so powerful I feel I must share this with you:

With each personal reading/healing I am blessed to spend an hour or two with your soul. I sit in the background and observe all the images and data Cosmic Awareness is processing through till an answer begins to form and I am able to verbalize the response. It is a beautiful process. What makes it beautiful is your soul.

This is an abstract idea I want to get across, so bear with me. Each time someone writes out their questions for a reading a power cord is plugged in to your heart. You are charging the words of each question. Some of your questions are clear, straight from the heart. Others are like masks that hide the deeper question or insecurity. Both are okay. The clear questions get more in depth responses and the others become the basis for new openings in the future. Both are good.

Something else happens too; as our souls mingle, and the impact of what is shared between your soul and Awareness echoes beyond me and you, it touches every soul that is involved with yours. It is a process that can have huge implications for healing and transformation.

This transmission of healing love and gratitude energies can be magnified if you choose to write the questions for your reading with the intention to allow any healing or awakening available to humanity be called forth in addition to a clear specific answer for you. This changes the power potential of your questions; it amplifies them 100,000 fold. Contemplate this please as you consider committing to a reading.

I am here to be of assistance to you as you awaken to this new understanding of yourself. I welcome your questions, input, and requests for clarifications.

Sincerely,

M
